

Current News Releases

If you're a member of the media and need additional information about Haworth, please send our public relations team an e-mail, or contact one of us individually.

Haworth appoints Olivieri as vice president of architecture and design

HOLLAND, Mich. - May 3, 2004 - Haworth, Inc. has appointed Georgianna (Georgy) D. Olivieri, as vice president of architecture and design. In this position, Olivieri will be responsible for orchestrating and enabling Haworth's A&D sales and marketing strategies and will lead the A&D efforts of Haworth's field sales team.

Olivieri brings more than 14 years of experience in the office furniture industry, including leadership positions at Allsteel, Kimball, Knoll and Teknion. Most recently, Olivieri served as Teknion's vice president of strategic initiatives.

Olivieri holds a bachelor's degree in interior design from the University of Illinois and an Executive MBA from Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management. She is a LEED Accredited Professional and Corporate Member of the U.S. Green Building Council's Chicago Chapter, ASID and IIDA. Oliveri resides in Naperville, Ill., and works out of Haworth's Chicago office.

###

Haworth designs, manufactures, and markets office furniture and interior architecture. The international company had 2003 sales of $1.2 billion. Based in Holland, Mich., Haworth distributes products and services in more than 120 countries.